Sandy,
Well the Year finally came and went.
It's been a real
long journey.
Do you remember
all the times we had
during high school.
Things only just begun!
We've had a lot to tol
+ difficult times but we also shared some of the most happiest years together.
Fun will still go on !!
I wish you all the luck
in everything you do. We've made it this far the rest
should be a real sinch.
Good Luck again, Don't ever Friends always forget The

DEDICATION

Respected and admired by his fellow teachers and by his students, he is hardworking and funloving. His smile affects all who work with him and in his work, both as a teacher and as an advisor to the senior class, he has helped many along the road to find out. We proudly dedicate the 1973 Milestone to Mr. Nicholas Rinaldi.

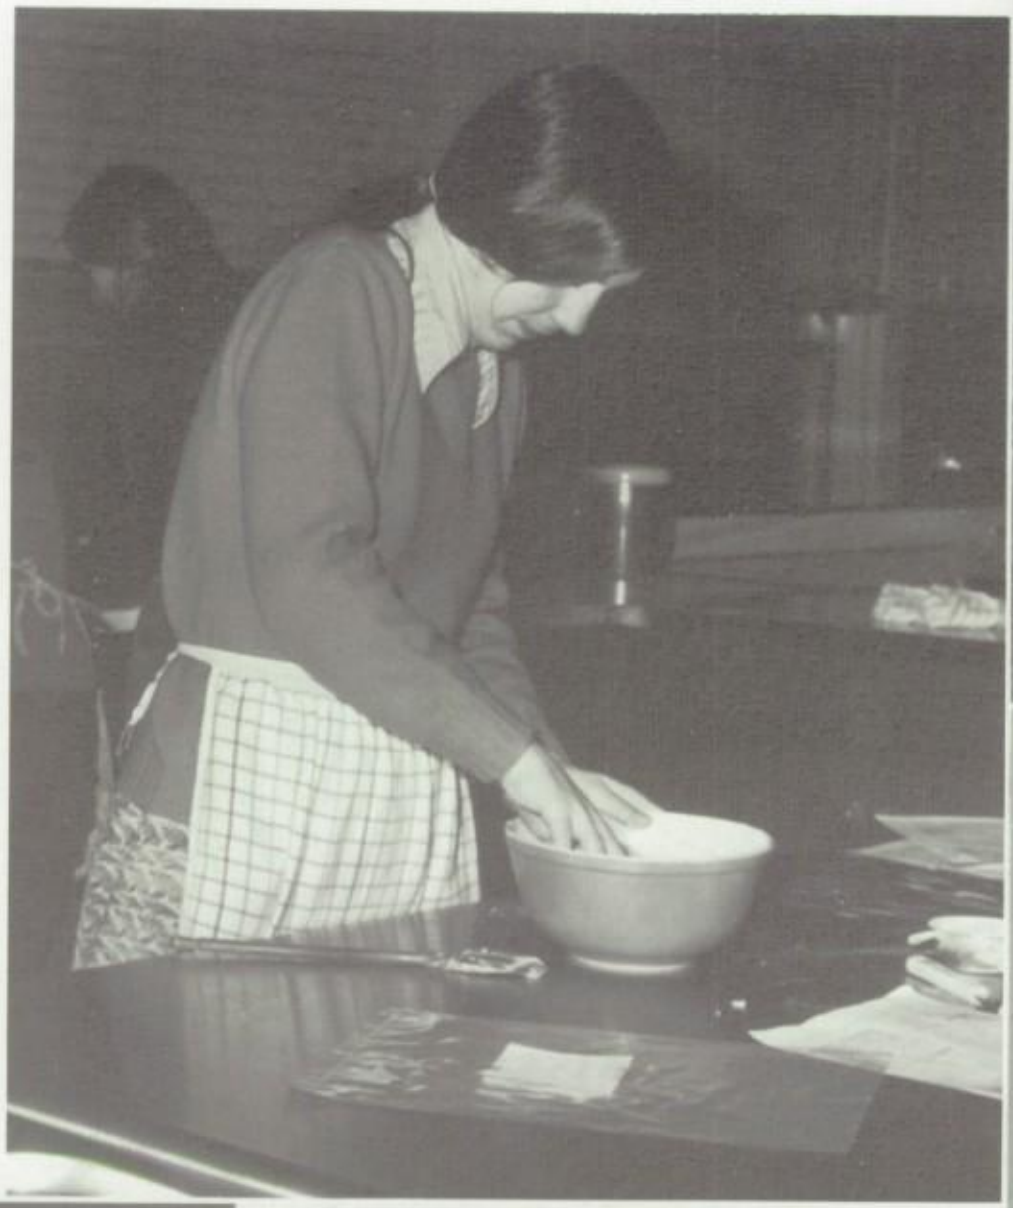
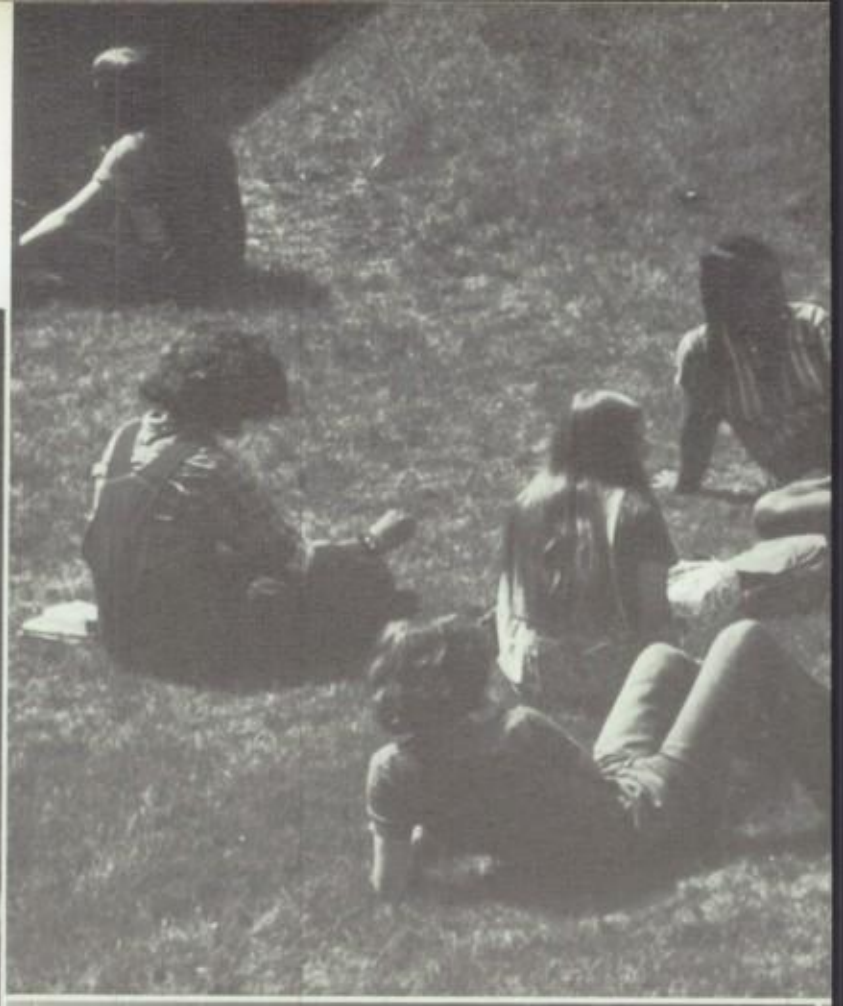
THEME 172





The road to find out is a wide one, filled with sharing the joys and sorrows of others, of communications quiet and serious, as well as spirited and lighthearted. A road can lead to the paths of thought that carry one out of the mainstream, into the quietness of the individual. A unique road will be found by all as time ticks on.

STUDENT LIFE

So on and on you go,
the seconds tick the time out,
there's so much left to know,
and I'm on the road to find out.

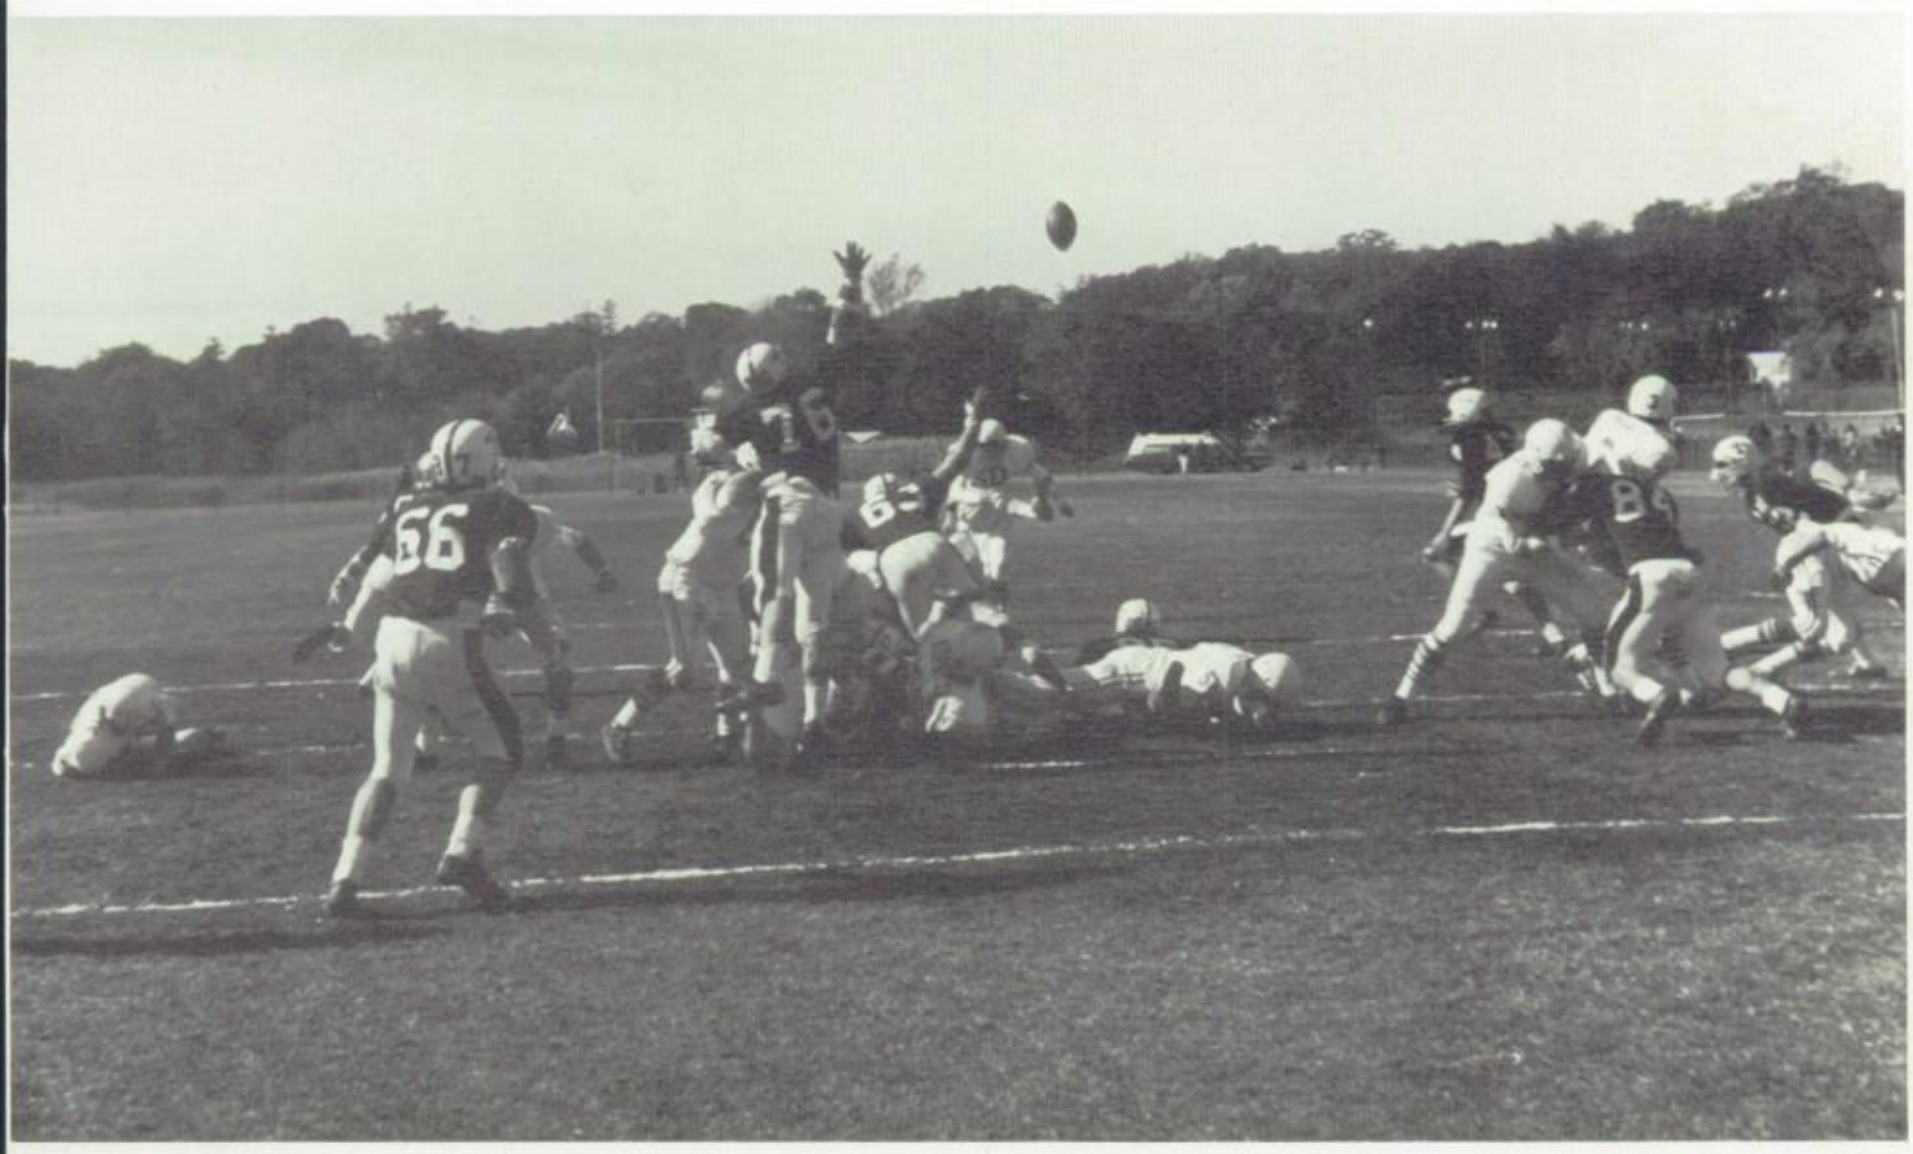
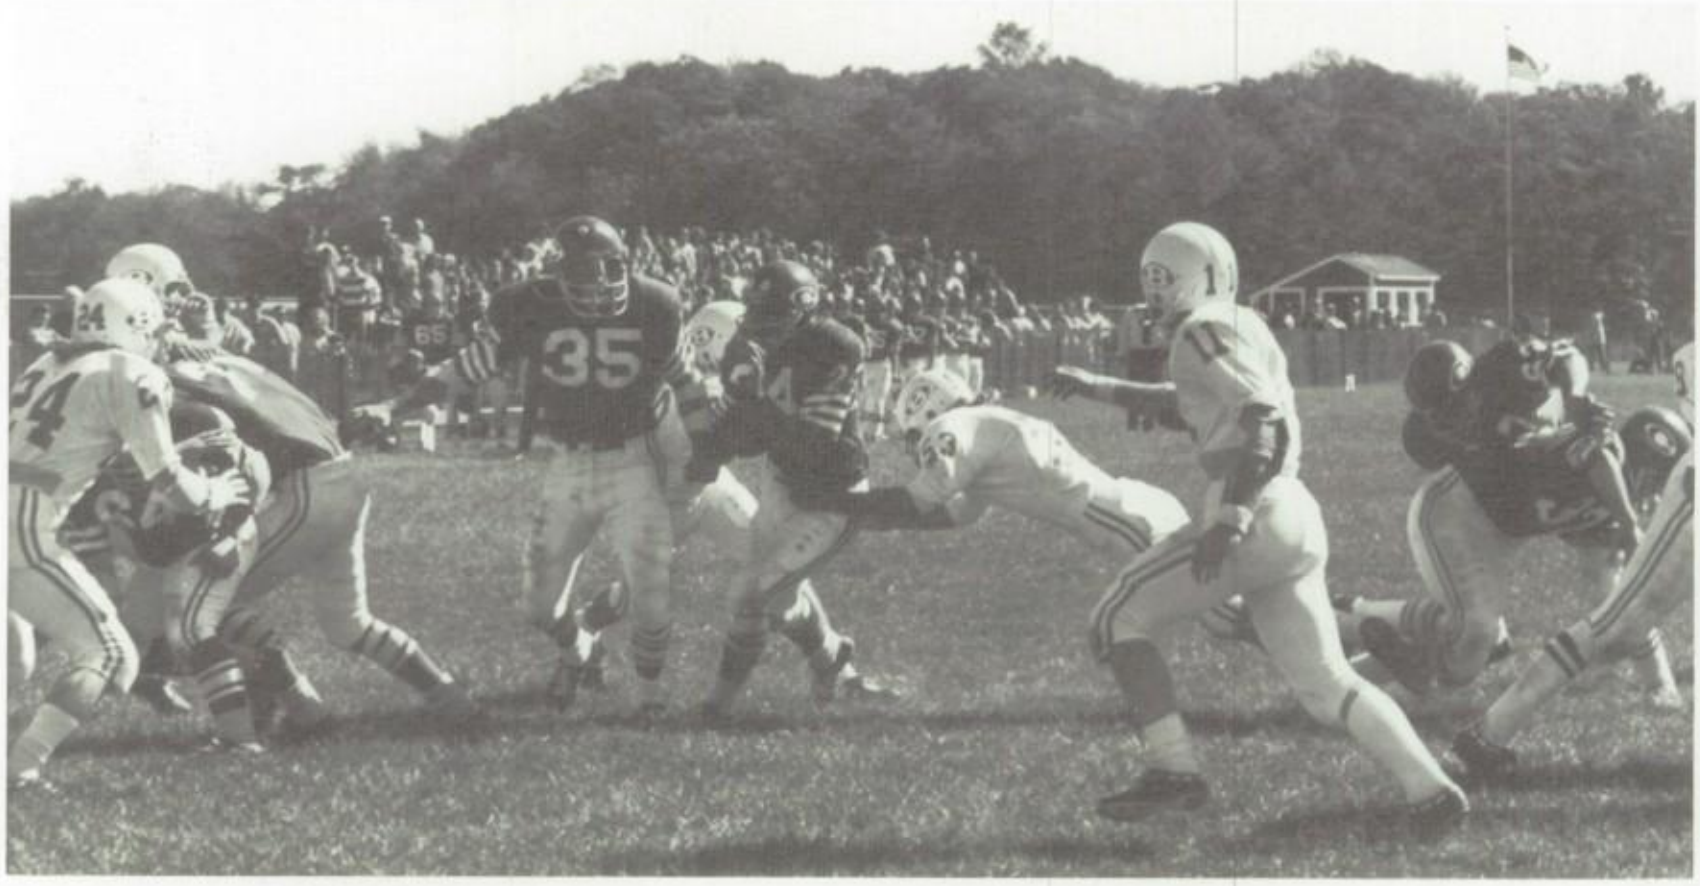
The hot, humid summer ends as the football team prepares for another season with grueling triple sessions. The team is rewarded by a third straight victory over North Branford, which will retire the Jaycee's trophy to the Hornets. Pride and sound advice from Coach Joseph Farina produced many second half comebacks which included two shutouts by Branford's defense, a feat not accomplished in five years.

Head Coach Joe Farina

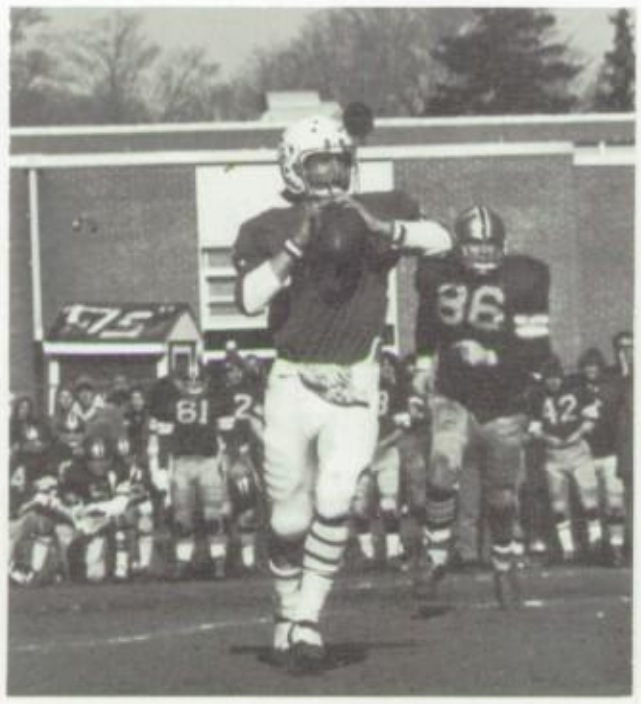
The Hornet's defensive unit swarms over the North Branford ball-carrier.



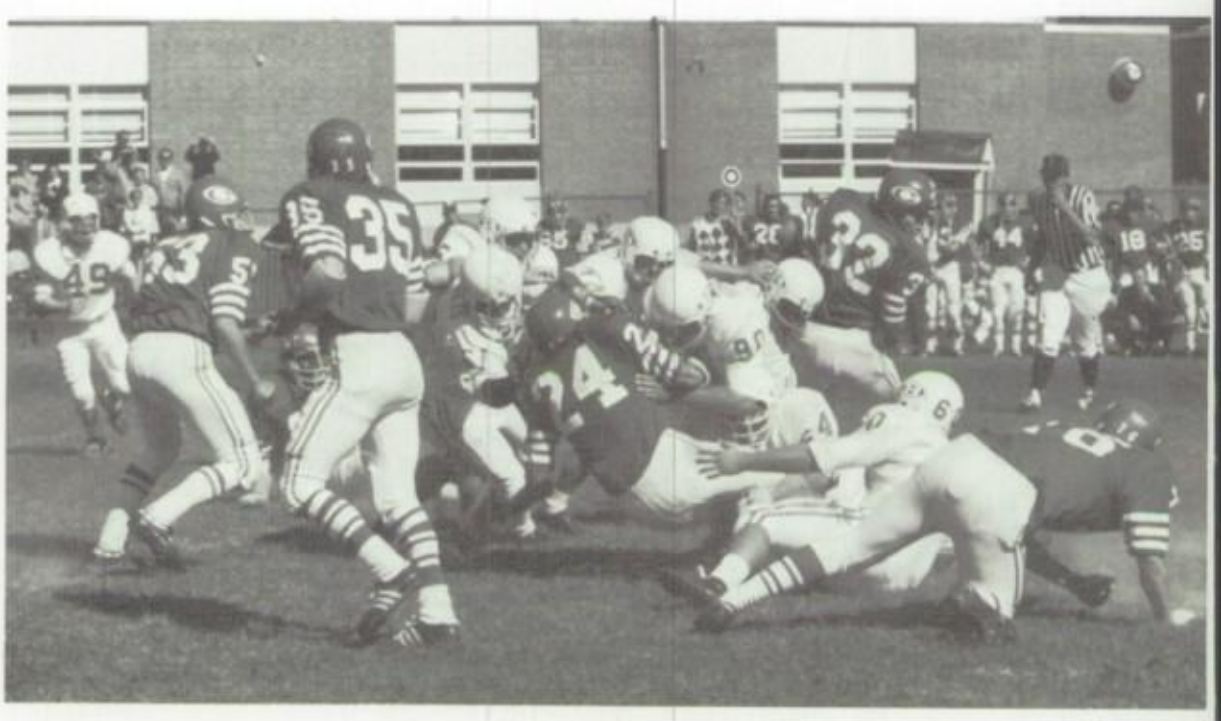
After a touchdown, Steve Cote kicks the extra point.



Jeff Jacobs makes a diving tackle as John Mason and Kevin Robertson move to help.



Quarterback Paul Dufour sets up, unaware of the unrushing defender behind him.



Excellent pursuit by Branford's defensive line smothers the ball carrier.

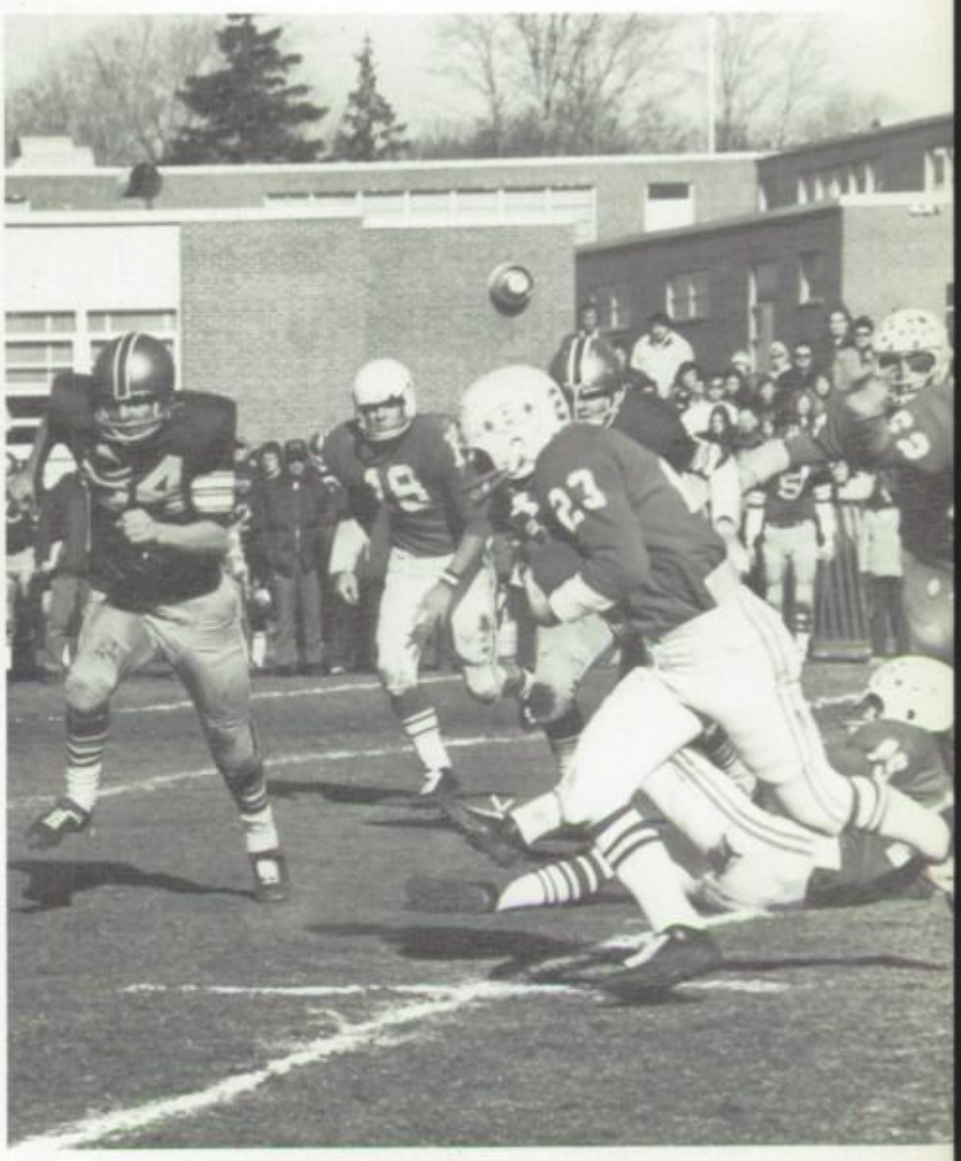
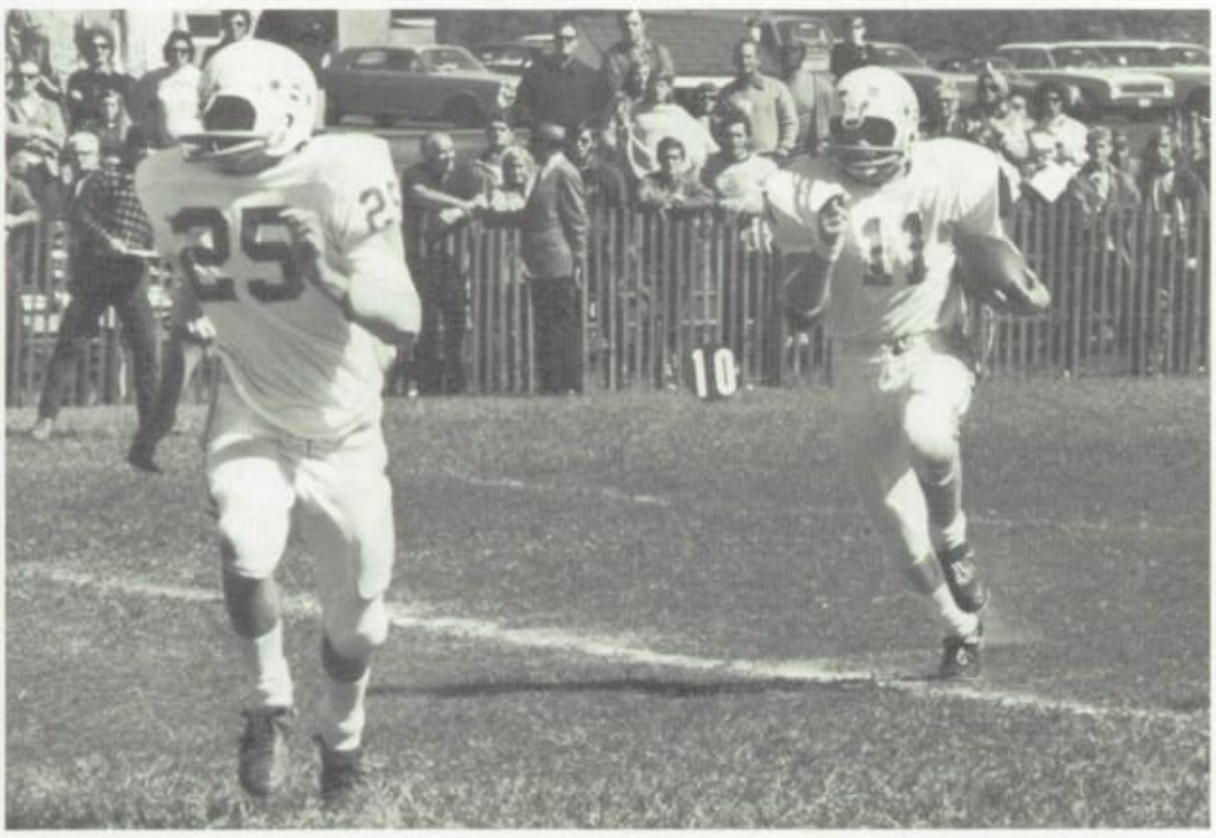
Outrunning his pursurers, Ralph DiCapua moves for a first down.

Behind solid blocking, John Mason goes for 10 of his 1160 yards, which is a record for a Branford player.

Safety John LaRonde holds on to an opponent as Bob Pfeiffer moves in to help.



Intercepting a pass, Ernie Orlando heads for the end zone.



Marc Mautte leads Kevin Robertson up the side on a kickoff return.

The work experience program is designed primarily to help those students who presently plan to either go directly to work upon graduation from high school, or who intend to gain further vocational training in either an advanced training program or technical training school.

The purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity for the student to acquire saleable skills, attitudes, and knowledge in an occupational area that is based upon his aptitude and career objective. By this method of relating school to work, the community can be used as a laboratory for providing realistic on-the-job experiences for the student.

One of the hardest jobs of a student council is reaching the students. Several attempts were made during the year such as the Leadership Workshop, dances and various assemblies. The Winter Weekend set up by Student Council was the most successful in bringing the students together. The cooperation and abundant generosity of the students made the slave auction the most profitable and rewarding part of the weekend.

Cafteria: Once upon a time, a long time ago, I can remember a place that was not too crowded, not too noisy and not a continual mess. It was then called a cafeteria. We also have a cafeteria, but we cannot make the same claims. When we gather enough courage to look around the room, we see tables with garbage left on them because students were just too lazy to pick up those heavy milk cartons and throw them away. A few of us blame the administration for this, but the only people who are responsible for the sloppinesss are the students who find a walk to the can with their garbage too demanding.

If a student gave you a diesler, what would you do with it?

"Deep fry it, powder it with sugar and flour, attach a rebuilt engine to the front of it and use it for hops back and forth to work."

"Wonder."

"Grade it."

"Obviously contact the vice squad and Emil Jennings, in that order."

"I would sell it, because I received one under the 1972 Christmas tree."

"I'd probably give it to my pet gribbit."

"I'd put it in my car's tail pipe."

"I find teaching an invigorating experience because nowhere else is there in my life, nor will there again be in the students' life, an opportunity for (future) lawyers, convicts, politicians, mechanics, hairdressers, filmmakers, businessmen, authors, bus drivers etc. to exchange ideas on an (almost) equal footing."

"My biggest objection to the high school doesn't concern the school itself, but its non-relationship to the community! And in this relationship I don't fault the high school for not reaching out, but the town and its leaders for not reaching in."

"Colour My World"

May 12, 1972

Couples, attired in every array of color, walked through a flowering arbor into a transformed wonderland that enticed everyone to dance among the soft candle light and silhoutted landscapes. To us it was more than a beautiful prom; it was a symbol that we had created a wonderland together as a class.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES . . . We as seniors try to realize that the administration is often more occupied with important business than caring about our so-called privileges. But we feel that an injustice was done to us when the courtyard was taken so abruptly away and no attempts were made towards a replacement.

One meeting was held with the administration in September and, per usual, nothing has happened since then. One proposal was "Open Campus" for seniors but how has that idea progressed?

We feel that the respect seniors have been given in the past is lacking now, maybe the answer to the question of "Why?" is apathy.

Sandy, Never forget Petmas Class the one we never went to. See you soon Love Cheryl

SENIOR COURTYARD . . . As freshmen we were always awed by all the rights of the seniors. They were able to go to all assemblies, had their own bathrooms, and most importantly, had the "COURTYARD."

As seniors we faced a change, a change that seemed unfair. After the begining of this school year, we learned we would not have the courtyard to ourselves; it was no longer a senior privilege. The courtyard was open to all classes. We were told this was only temporary but how long can "temporary" last?

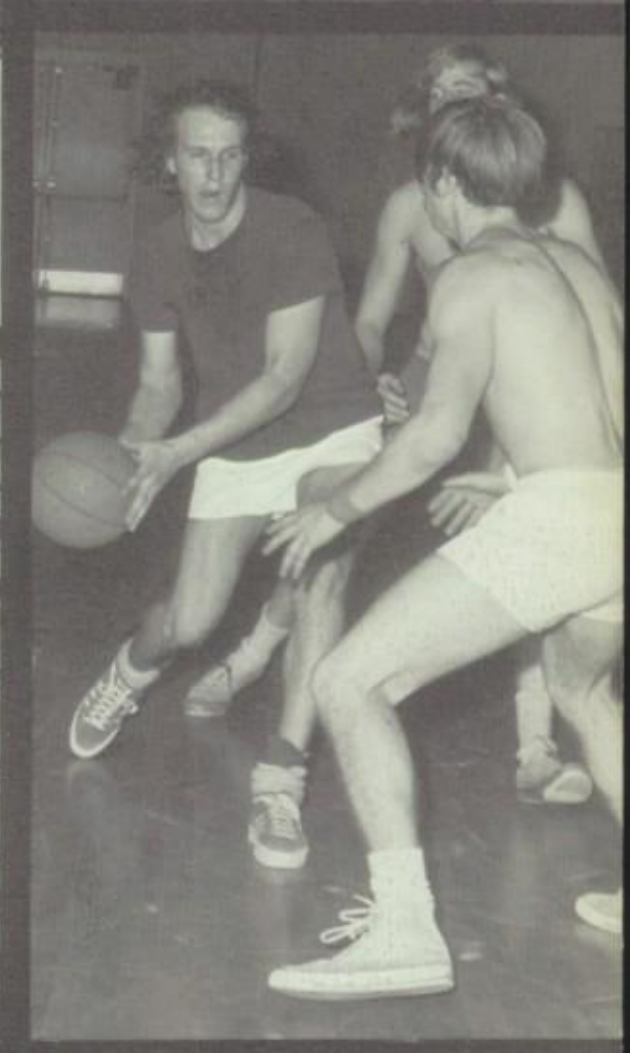
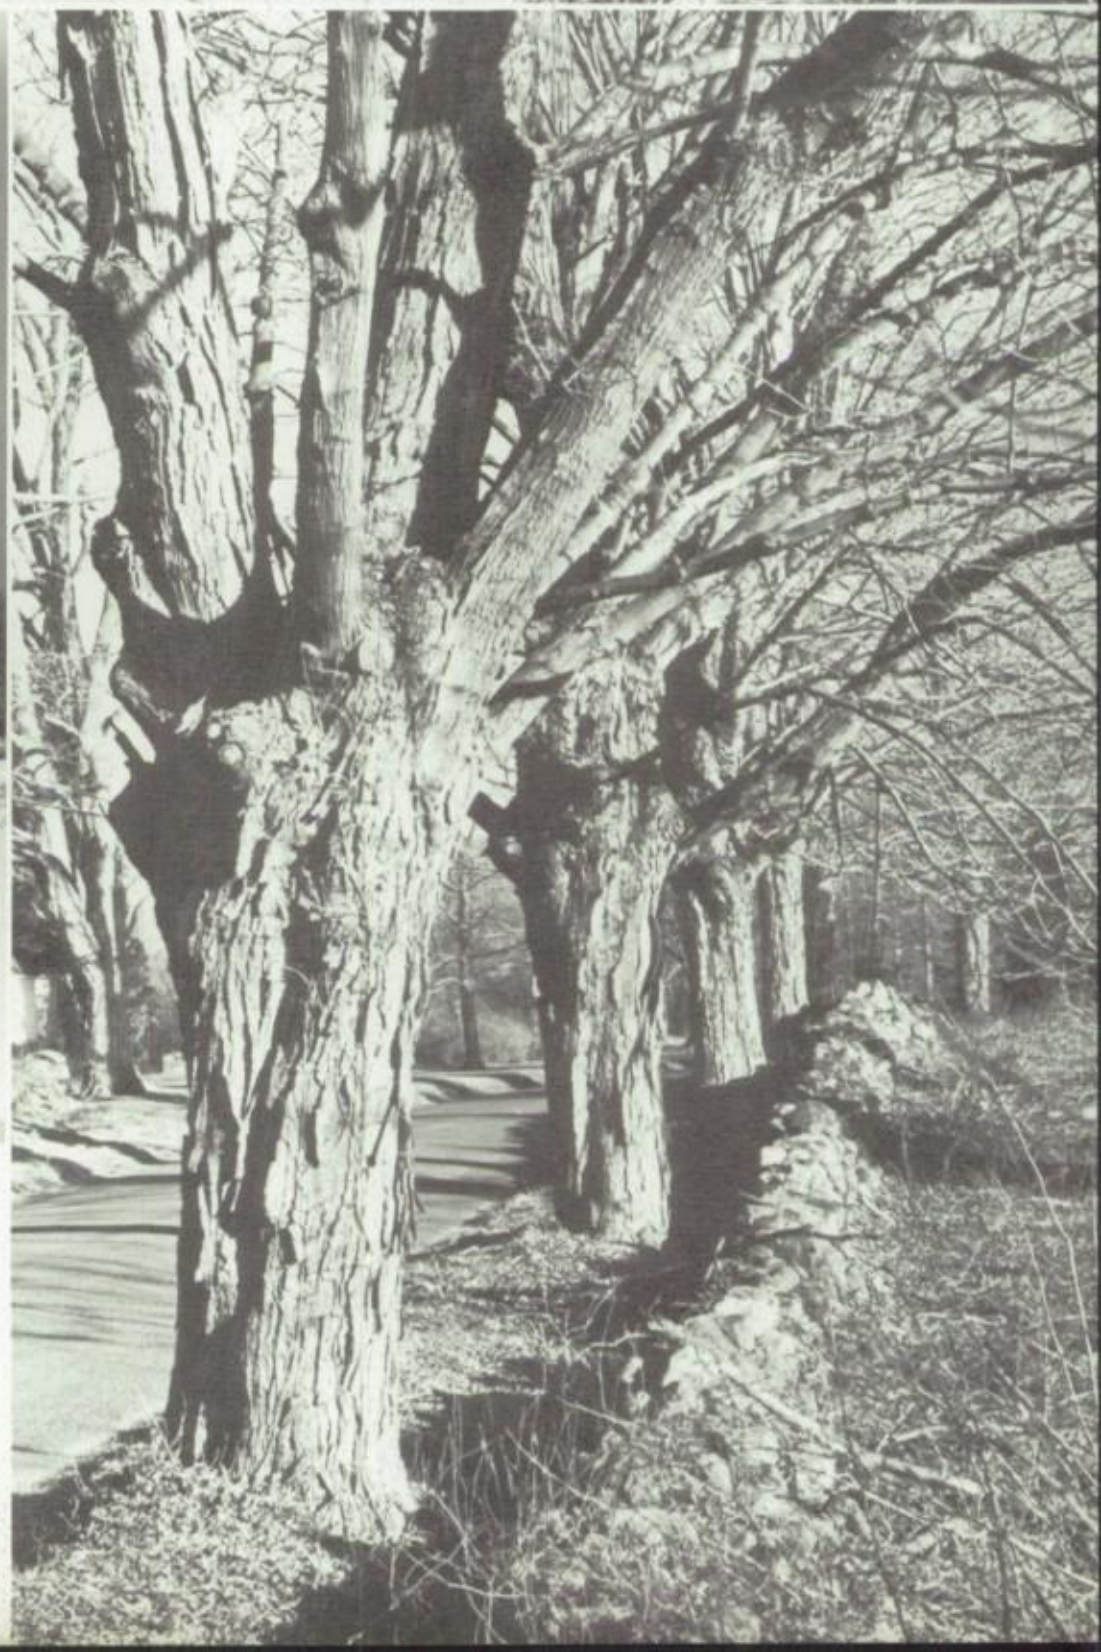
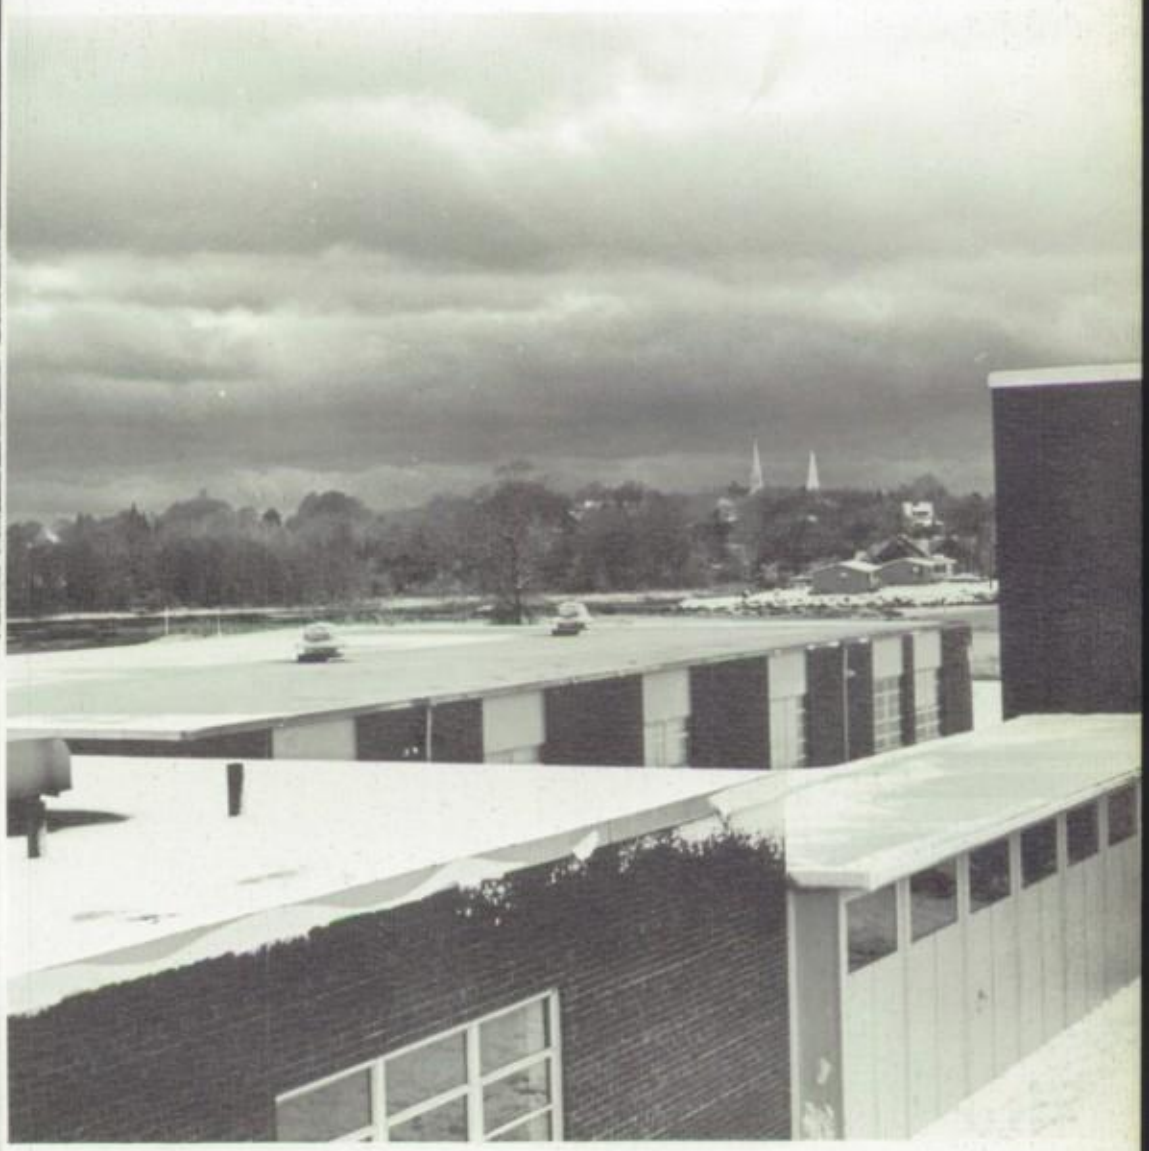
BEEP
BEEP

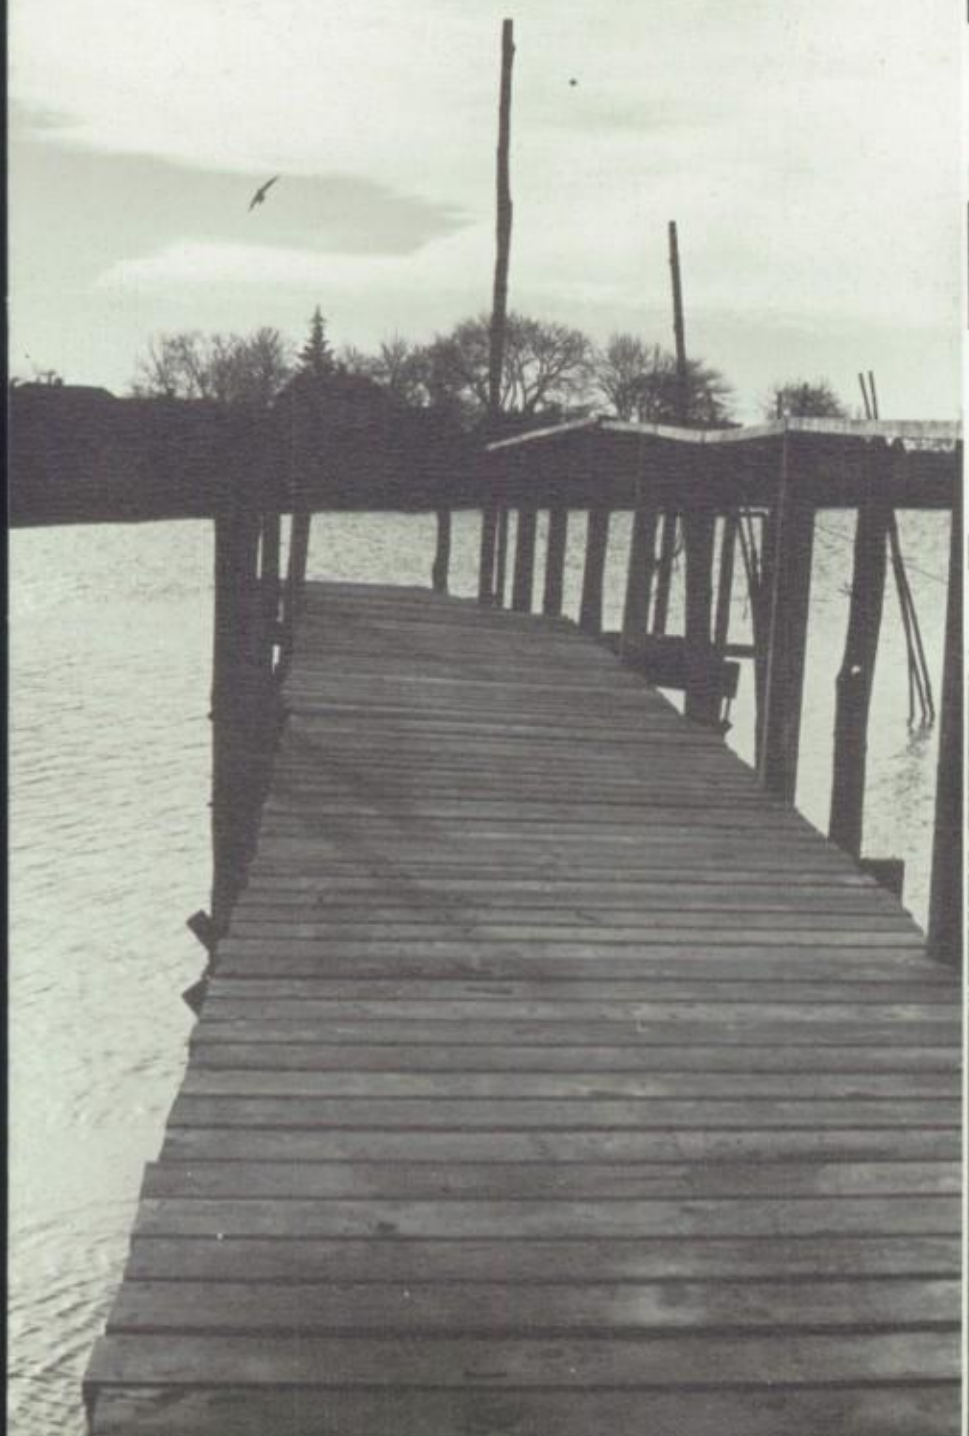


I walked into nature . . .

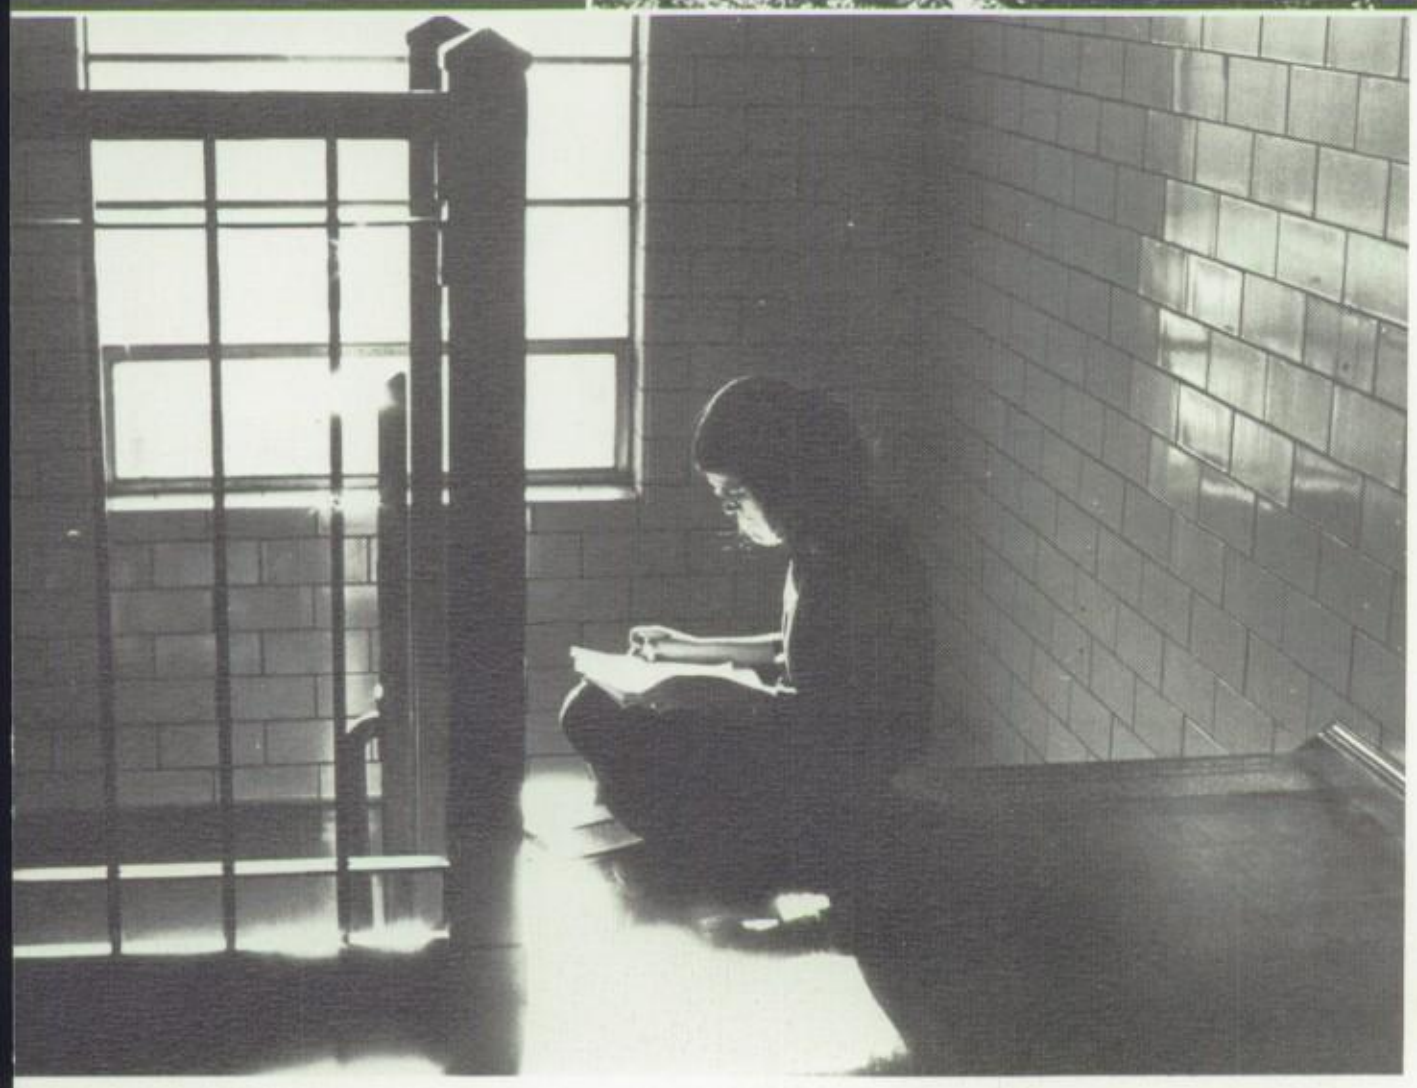


to find my way . . .





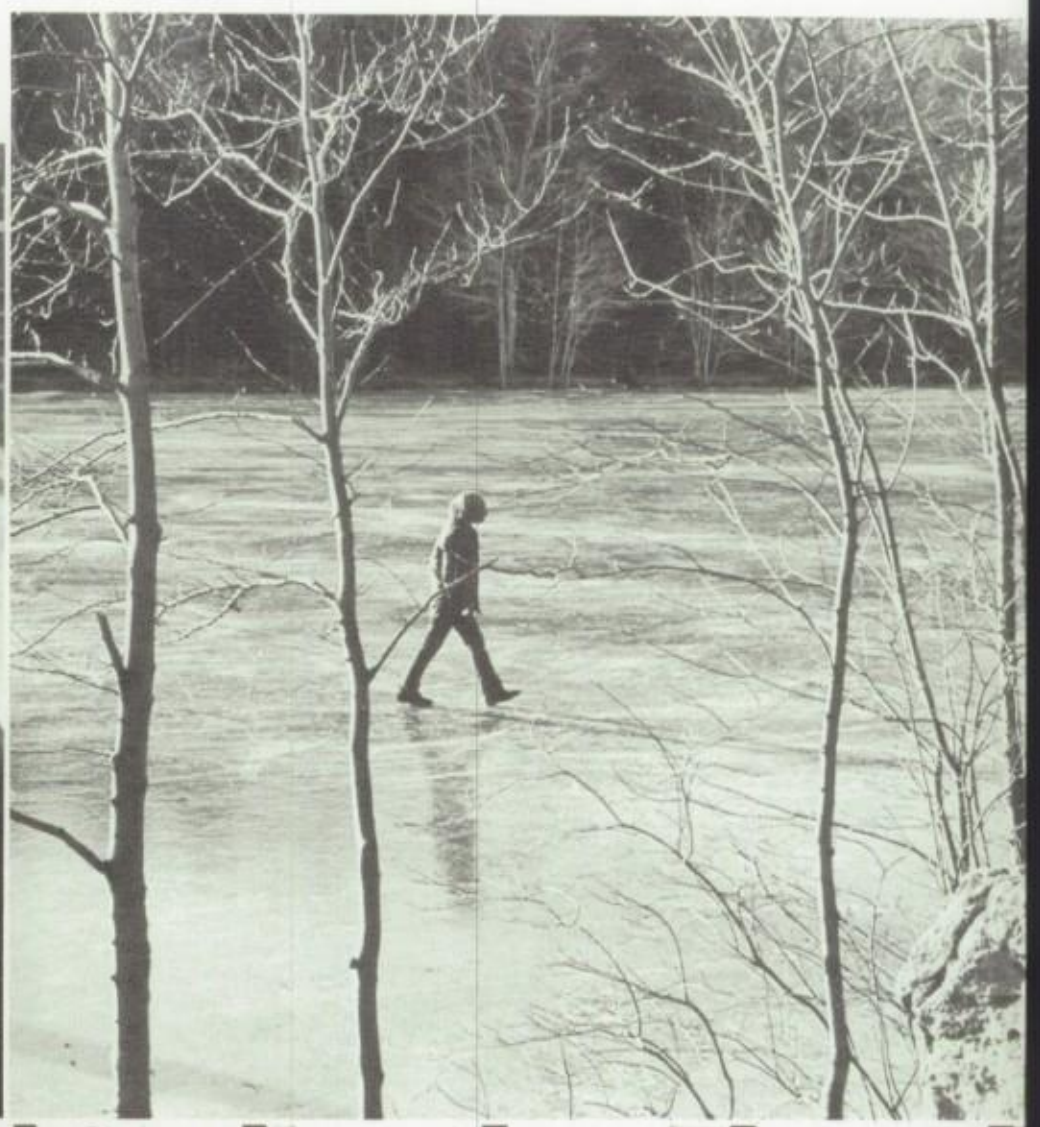
and the trees came down,



and comforted me
with repose.

It's kind of hard to put into writing
just what we represent as a school,

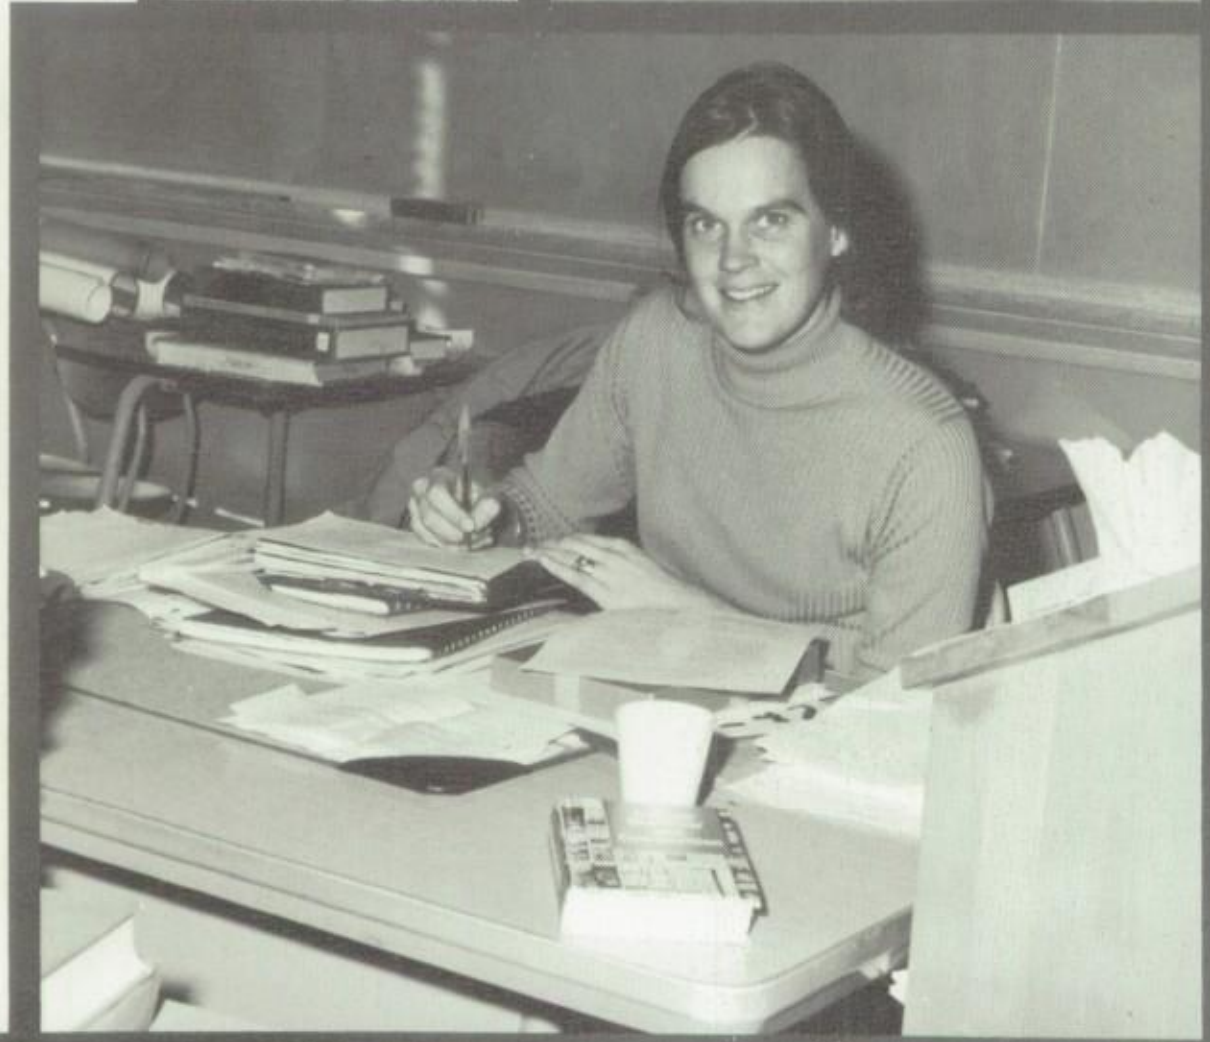
it's probably because many of us
don't know ourselves.



Most of us have
a road to travel;

some don't now, but will soon;
and sadly there are also those who never will.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT



We are living in a time when freedom is very important to us. While we were making this book, Mrs. deChabert gave us the freedom we asked for, the freedom we needed. She used her own time to photograph and develop pictures, helped us get organized, and never once complained about having to stay until 5:00 P.M. some nights tying up loose ends. How can we thank a person like this enough for giving so much of herself to help make this what we believe to be the best yearbook ever.

YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHERS: Edward Hippolitus, Toby deChabert, Naomi Kantrow, Diane Sobolewski, Dave Rutkowski, Peter Pieragostini. Missing are Debby Kessen, John Prusski, Harry Morgan.

We would like to thank Loring Studios and Mr. Jack Brown of O'Toole Publishing Company for their patience and their help in making our yearbook.
